

CENSA Washington DC Chapter Author Book Panel:

Crossroads Africa: Perspectives on U.S.-China-Africa Security Affairs

We are pleased to invite you to an evening with five of the contributing authors from CENSA's most recent book, Crossroads Africa: Perspectives on U.S.-China-Africa Security Affairs. Please join us on the campus of the George Washington University for what promises to be an engaging evening.

April 16, 2009
7:00 – 9:00 PM

Linder Family Commons, 6th floor.
The George Washington University
1957 E St. NW, Washington, D.C.

An Elliott School Book Panel Featuring:

Ms. Theresa Whelan, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for African Affairs
Ambassador David Shinn, Elliott School of International Affairs
Major Shannon Beebe, Defense Attaché to Angola
Michael Radosh, Booz | Allen | Hamilton
Major Sean Macrae, US Army

Moderated by:

Dr. Robert Tomes, CENSA and the Elliott School of International Affairs

This panel addresses the nexus of U.S. foreign policy and security issues involving Africa and China, including the emerging role of the U.S. Africa Command. The panelists are contributors to a forthcoming CENSA monograph with four sections: Framing U.S. Security Policy Toward Africa; Perspectives on China-Africa Security Issues; Security and Development Challenges; and, AFRICOM and U.S. Military Strategy.

Please RSVP to CENSA Executive Director James Kirkhope at james.kirkhope@censa.net.

The Council for Emerging National Security Affairs (CENSA) is a nonpartisan, nonprofit research organization established in 1999. Its mission is to contribute to the ongoing dialogue shaping national security policy through formal discussion series and collaborative research projects leading to publications of lasting quality. CENSA's activities draw upon the talents of its midcareer membership, a diverse, international group of public sector foreign policy specialists, military officers, private sector professionals, and accomplished academics. Please see www.censa.net for more information or contact Bryan.Cummings@censa.net.