

New York Spring Policy Networking Cocktail Hour

CENSA - The Council for Emerging National Security Affairs, a nonpartisan 501(c)3 research organization, is pleased to host its 2nd Annual Manhattan cocktail hour with policy professionals and the NYC Alumni of

Harvard Kennedy School of Government
Princeton Woodrow Wilson School
Princeton Bendheim Center for Finance
Columbia SIPA's International Security Program
United States Presidential Scholars Association

Thursday, May 20, 2010 6:30pm – 9:00pm
Metrazur Restaurant/Lounge, Grand Central Station
No charge to attend; Cash Bar available

Come join fellow policy-minded professionals from across the city for an evening of networking and socializing.

Our NY alumni and CENSA members play important roles in diplomacy, security, and NGOs; finance and law; federal institutions and city government; and the nonprofit and philanthropic worlds. Take this opportunity to renew old friendships and build new ties across the policy and business community.

Registration: There is no charge to attend; to help us coordinate space and provide nametags, please register at CENSANewYork@gmail.com with your name and school or affiliation. Individuals involved or interested in policy but not graduates of the schools above are welcome as well.

The reception will be held at Metrazur's Petite Lounge; Metrazur is on the east side and up the stairs of Grand Central's main hall. See www.charliepalmer.com/Properties/Metrazur/

About CENSA:

Established in 1999, the Council for Emerging National Security Affairs (CENSA) contributes to the national security policy dialogue through formal discussion events, monthly teleconferences, and collaborative research projects published in both book form and online. CENSA's membership is a diverse, international group of public sector foreign policy specialists, military officers, private sector professionals, and accomplished academics. CENSA is a nonpartisan, nonprofit 501(c)3 organization. Please visit www.censa.net for more information and recent policy essays by members, or email Bryan.Cummings@censa.net.
